

Seasonal Workers Guide

How to get ahead of the peak season recruitment frenzy and be one of the first to secure a seasonal warehouse job.

Get Started Early

Applications should be made in July and August to provide you with the very best chances of securing a position.

See the latest warehouse jobs and apply here.

Be Prepared

While everyone else is thinking about their summer holiday plans, you should be working on your CV.

Find a range of tailored CV templates here to help you to create a professional looking CV quickly.

Knowledge is power

Build up an overview of the experience and skills you have gained to add to your application.

On-the-job experience

Familiarity of warehouse environments and practices

Ability to use inventory software, databases and systems

Experience with hand-held scanners and tablets

Health and safety, safe lifting training

Machinery operation experience

Transferable skills

Organisation

Time management

Self-motivation

Planning

Leadership

Punctuality

Reliability

Team working

Flexibility

Communication & Listening

Decisiveness

Register Now

Get ready to accept work placements early, register with Blue Arrow here